String Fever

Coming from a family of musicians it was always likely that the Broadbent boys were going to follow their fathers into the music profession. Giles and Ralph studied at the Royal Academy of Music and Graham at the Royal College. Giles went on to lead the orchestras for several West End shows. (Sunset Boulevard, Phantom of the Opera and My Fair Lady) Their Youngest brother Neal was due to study at the Guildhall School of Music but instead he was kidnapped by his brothers to be the cellist in their new group - Stringfever!

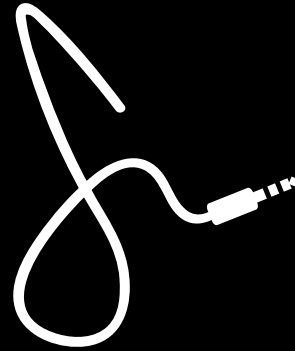

In the early '90s Giles and Ralph cut their teeth as entertainers on the streets of Europe. They often took their younger brother Neal busking with them too!

OVER 1000 SHOWS IN 32 COUNTRIES

*"A little bit Classical, a little bit
Rock and Roll, humorous and a whole lot entertaining"*
